

A PRINTABLE RESOURCE FROM

UDL for Little Learners

PRACTICAL STRATEGIES FOR EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATORS • JEFF HORWITZ

My Calm Corner Kit

A PLACE TO NOTICE BIG FEELINGS & FIND MY CALM

How to use this kit

Emotional literacy is helping children notice, name, and understand their emotions, learn strategies to manage and express them, and tune in to others with empathy. The Calm Corner is a caring, quiet space to practice all three — never a time-out or a punishment.

“Our kids are capable of so much — but they need the tools and support to get there.”

UDL FOR LITTLE LEARNERS · EMOTIONAL LITERACY

1

Notice & Name

Find the feeling card that matches how your body feels. Naming it is the first step.

2

Choose

Choose a calming strategy card and give it a try in the corner.

3

Reset

Take your time. Use the Calming Down sheet to move through the steps.

4

Return

When your body feels ready, rejoin the group.

Printing tips

Print on cardstock and laminate for durability · Cut along the dashed lines · Add self-adhesive velcro dots or magnets to mount cards on a board · Store loose cards in a pocket chart or envelope in the corner.

How do you feel? POINT TO ONE →

A whole-page poster for the wall. Cut-apart matching cards are on the next pages.

Feeling Cards

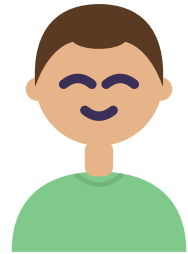

Cut along the dashed lines. Use these to name and share big feelings.

HAPPY

EXCITED

CALM

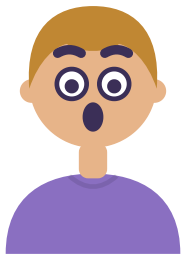

SAD

ANGRY

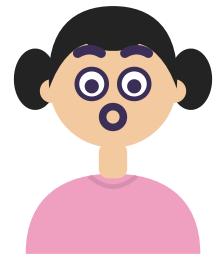

FRUSTRATED

SCARED

NERVOUS

SURPRISED

EMBARRASSED

BORED

TIRED

LONELY

DISAPPOINTED

SICK

HUNGRY

Calming Strategy Cards

Kid-friendly tools to try in the corner. Cut along the dashed lines.

DEEP BREATHS

COUNT TO 10

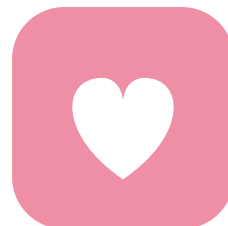

READ A BOOK

POSITIVE SELF-TALK

SET A TIMER

SELF HUG

HAPPY THOUGHTS

HAND SQUEEZES

DRINK WATER

USE A FIDGET

ASK FOR A BREAK

STRETCH

JOURNAL

TALK ABOUT IT

Calming Down

Place a feeling card or draw in each box. Follow the path.

1 I feel...

2 I can...

3 Now I feel...

4 Am I ready to go back?

YES

NOT YET

Not yet? That's okay — try another strategy.

welcome to My Calm
Corner

A safe place to feel my feelings & find my calm

Make Your Own

Blank cards for feelings or strategies your class wants to add. Draw a picture and write the word.

